Project

Field(s)	Music and Performance
Description	CREATIVE EUROPE The “Grupo Coral Ossónoba”, choral association based in Faro, capital city of Algarve, south Portugal, intends to present by the end of June/2020, a group of three presentations with the following guidelines: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The presentations share the same performance design, all sharing the character of a open cultural event, attracting and taking the audience in motion, as following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) An initial performance would take place in one site, gathering an initial audience for the main event, following a planned path where other small performances (around 5 minutes each) would take place, gathering more and more audience. b) On the main event, at the end of the small performances route, all groups would participate on the open venue, with a special focus for the “Creative Europe” partners, accordingly to their features. – The performances will be open to all kinds of artistic expressions, like choirs, music ensembles, dance groups, theatre groups, street art, visual arts and so on;

- The local cultural associations and/or individuals are expected to attend the performances venues, and can share performances;
- The presentations will be located on the city centres of Faro, Loulé and Tavira, three of the most historical and picturesque cities of the Algarve, underlying the role of cultural heritage in the event itself;
- The chosen date is connected with the celebration of summer Solstice, underlying the character of an open and free event, directed to all type of audience, enjoying the usual pleasant climate;
- The event has been tested by Grupo Coral Ossónoba for some years, making this “Solstice” a big event in the city, with a huge participation of artists and public alike;
- The estimated time on each city venues is about two hours.

PARTICIPANTS

We would like to partner with diverse artistic groups (choral, instrumental or other music ensembles, dance or theatre groups, street art performers, visual artists), as well other artistic or cultural proposals.

OBJECTIVES

The main objective of the event is to bring all sort of artistic expressions to the city centres, underlying by one side the connection with the cultural heritage, by other promoting a more active participation of the audience, being itself in motion.
