Culture sub-Program

Strand/category	Cooperation projects
Deadline	November 27 th , 2019

Cultural operator(s)

Name	LEC – LABORATÓRIO DE EXPERIMENTAÇÃO CÉNICA, New University of Lisbon
Short description	We are a research group involving artists and university professors, part of a research institute (ICNOVA) graded as excellent. For the last 3 years, we have invited the best masters for workshops on Clown Technique, Masks, Exploration of non theatrical spaces, Viewpoints, Body rhythms, Dalcroze methodology, Grotovsky ethics and methodology. Besides those workshops, our members carry on their own research sessions around the common objective of developing improvisation skills.

Project

Field(s)	Theatre, dance and performance
Description	We want to share the skills we have worked on and learn new paths to develop our central focus: improvisation in theatre, dance and performance. As final results we envision: 1) a presentation in several countries of work based on improvisation techniques 2) the edition of a kind of tool kit with exercises and hints for all those aspiring to develop their improvisation capacities.
