Short description	The gallery is distinguished by the deep relationships it develops with the artists, from emerging and mid-career to the established ones, this being done through our sustained cooperation with museums, biennials and publishing houses. Our team continues to challenge the way things have been done in the past, whether through the reinvention within the gallery walls or throughout the artistic engagement, embracing the bold expansion of existing mediums, and supporting the young, upcoming, new medium ideas, inspirations and endeavors.
