Partner search

ERASMUS +

Strand/category	KA227 - Partnerships for Creativity (Adult education)
Deadline	October 2020

Cultural operator(s)

Name	Love for Livres + Quartier Libre
Short description	<ul> <li>Love for Livres is a techforgood social enterprise whose mission is to share and appreciate the emotional experience of reading to create social transformation and positive impact in society, individually and collectively. (Based in Paris)</li> <li>Quartier Libre is a digital interactive space in Brussels and beyond dedicated to books and their ecosystem. (Based in Brussels)</li> </ul>
Contact details	Céline Mas, Love for Livres cofounder & President celine@loveforlivres.com
Project
Field(s)	A bibliotherapy digital cycle on resilience and creativity #Resilience #Neurosciences #Culture #Innovation #Digitalpractices #Community
Description	<ul> <li>Set up a six-month virtual and civic engagement program based on books and fiction that mainly seeks to inspire and empower Europeans and provide them with innovative tools to enhance their resilience and creativity in the post-covid times. The program ends with an hackathon.</li> <li>The project is part of the Partnerships for Creativity strand in the field of adult education. It addresses the priority Skills development and inclusion through creativity and arts but it is also based on digital approaches.</li> <li>Main objectives of the project</li> <li>Strengthen the networking between associations on the ground as they will help us recruit the participants.</li> <li>Contribute to Erasmus + vibrant motto with a new and interdisciplinary approach that combines neurocognitive approaches, education and culture.</li> <li>Analyze and experience the assets of reading in the post-crisis resilience process and the value added of bibliotherapy as an innovative practice in the field of education and training.</li> </ul>

4. Deploy an evidence-based project as the experience will be measured and analyzed through an in-depth article at the end of the cycle.

Looking for Partners

Countries	PanEuropean or covering a few European countries.
Profile	<ul> <li>We are looking for a social-impact driven association/company that provides classes and training to adults in the field of personal development and competences extension with solid credentials.</li> <li>Ideally, the organisation has already a constituted community/audience to whom we could propose our program.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>Ideally, the organisation is pan European or covers a few countries. His premises are based outside of France and Belgium (mandatory).</li> </ul>
Other
	More details on the project will be shared with potential partners. We will be much willing to collaborate so that the project content can take into account the potential partners' views.