Sector or field	performing arts, cultural heritage, visual arts, arts and technology, theatre, cabaret,
-----------------	--

Description or summary of the proposed project	Institution of culture also called as a summer theatre with a stage in Mielno, Sarbinowo and Chłopy. The project will consist of theatrical elements, performances, theatrical and paratheatrical staging connected to plastic arts. In addition to this, there will be several cabaret activities with comedic elements aimed at young artists of cabaret theatre as well as film. Theatrical activities will be focused around the region of the institution and some plays will be devoted to ritual theatre. We will invite different maritime theatres. When it comes to the cabarets, the actions will be taken in a form of a competition with the holiday topic linked with different forms of workshops for young artist under the tutelage of professional and experienced artists. The stage will be open for different artist from various fields of expertise (starting from the plastic art and ending at theatrical productions). These artistic actions will be held regularly. The whole institution will be under the auspices of Anna Ondra (a Polish actress born near Tarnów) and her husband Maksymilian Otto Schmelling (who was a boxing world champion in 1930). They often visited Mielno (Koszalin county). In other words, it will be the connection of art and artistic competition.
